‘Not seeing is believing’
Photographer and church leader, Chris Spracklen, speaks about faith and photography. Chris Spracklen is the Pastor of Martock Christian Fellowship, where he has served for the past 17 years. He is also a keen photographer and is particularly interested in shooting birds with his DSLR. He also enjoys the process of editing and sharing his photos. You can see some examples of his work at:

Seek ways to stretch your understanding of this wonderful universe. Begin with the familiar: in your mind’s eye go back to a place on this good earth that is linked in a special way with your friendship with God. Was it a mountaintop with a sweeping vista or a meadow that felt like an embrace of God? Remembering these places is helpful, because they have revealed to us the beauty of God.

Church Website. If you have any information, photos etc. that you would like put on the church website - cheapstreetchurch.co.uk. - please send them to- joseph@josephcrocker.co.uk

MESSAGE BOARD

Good News!

The Call Team had a very positive meeting with a prospective minister last Tuesday and agreed unanimously to invite him to come to preach with a view. He has accepted the invitation and Stella is arranging a weekend for this second visit. We'll let you know as soon as we have a date.

Please let Christine know if you would like a lift to the special Reformation service at 6 pm at Bell Street this evening. To contact Christine by email, please use the address: chrisrogers@uwclub.net

Last week's preacher, Revd Lynn Morris, sent a lovely email to say how much she had enjoyed her visit to Cheap Street and to thank you for the warm, friendly welcome received.

I have the Methodist Membership tickets for 2017-18. Please could the Pastoral Visitors let me know how many they need.

Christine Rogers

Thank you all for your prayers and good wishes for my sister and our family during her recent illness. She is now at home and making slow steady progress back to her normal self. Jan Wallace

Blythswood Shoe Boxes - Thank you to all who have contributed towards this so far. Completed boxes need to be there by Sunday, 5th November, when they will all be dedicated during the morning service.

Thank you, Janet Le Moignan
