A Date for your Diaries!

On Saturday, 9th December at 7pm "The Mill Singers" (a male voice choir) will be giving a concert in aid of Somerset & Dorset Air Ambulance, here in this church. Tickets (priced £9 for adults, free for students) will include light refreshments. They can be obtained from me (01935 814887) or Winstone's Bookshop. As I've been sent 50 tickets to sell, I'd be most grateful, please, if you'd kindly help support this very worthy cause.

Many thanks,

“The mercy of God does not come and go, granted to some and refused to others. Why? Because it is unconditional—always there, underlying everything. It is literally the force that holds everything in existence, the gravitational field in which we live and move and have our being.”

MESSAGE BOARD

Good News!

We now have a week-end for the visit of the URC minister: December 30th and 31st. A timetable still has to be made, but there may well be an opportunity to meet him socially on the Saturday and for him to lead worship and preach at Cheap Street on the Sunday. A combined meeting of the four churches involved will be held at 7 pm on January 2nd at Cheap Street to consider the Call. We hope that as many as possible will be available on these dates, although some will no doubt be away on holiday or have other commitments at this time.

The Cheapstreeter - The DEADLINE for the next issue is TUESDAY, 21st NOVEMBER

Christmas Shoeboxes -

This year we have collected 72 boxes for Blythswood Care to send to children and adults who live in extreme poverty and who will probably have no other present at Christmas. 53 boxes were provided by individuals and 19 were made up, from contributions from a lot of people, into joint church boxes. Thank you so much to everybody who contributed in any way. Please remember those who will receive the boxes (I expect this to be in Romania but haven't heard definitely yet) when we come to celebrate Christmas ourselves.
