MESSAGE BOARD

My personal thanks for the kind welcome that I have received in Sherborne, and all those that worked hard to make my induction such a wonderful day. My dogs Fergus and Thane seem to be settling in well and getting used to their new home, and the number of boxes left to unpack is slowly going down.
Duncan

A huge thank you to all the ladies who very kindly made cakes and other goodies for last Saturday's refreshments. Thank you also to the band of helpers who so willingly gave their time in the catering department that afternoon.
Norma

Apologies to THANE (one of Duncan's shelties) that I called him Shane in last week's pew sheet. How could I confuse such a noble name!
Christine

Worrying doesn't take away tomorrow's troubles –

It takes away today's peace!
