Our 15th Summer series of organ recitals continues on today at 3pm when our old friend Peter Lattimer will be performing. Details follow:

Peter Lattimer was born and educated in Ashby-de-la-Zouch, Leicestershire. After National Service, he read music at Oxford and was also the assistant organist in the Cathedral. His teaching career was spent firstly at Hurstpierpoint College and then for 30 years at Bryanston School. Since his retirement, he enjoys being involved with a multitude of musical activities in the region. Peter has performed at GMC several times in the past and has always been a strong supporter of our musical endeavours. We are therefore delighted to welcome him back again in 2018!

Admission is free (although donations towards church funds will be gratefully received) and refreshments will be provided.

I hope you'll be able to make it.

All best wishes, Gordon Amery Organist & Concert Organiser

Duncan will be on holiday from August 13th until September 5th. If you wish to speak to a Minister, please get in touch with Paul Arnold, whose telephone number is on the front of the pew sheet.

Christine will soon be ordering copies of the new Methodist prayer handbook "A World Transformed" for ministers, worship leaders and local preachers. If anyone else would like one, please let her know.

Booking forms are available on notice boards in the church welcome area and the hall for the Quiet Day at Hilfield Friary on Saturday, 8th September from 10.30 am to 4.00 pm. The theme is 'Faithfulness', led by John Bradshaw, the Chairman of Sherborne Churches Together. Please sign up on one of the lists if you would like to attend.

May I encourage you to have a look at the posters in the church about Solar Stories, an event organised by Christian Aid, being held at Hilfield Friary on Wednesday 5th September.

This will be featuring stories of solar power in Ethiopia, and finding out how solar is being used at the Friary.

I shall be attending, so do feel free to ring me if you would like a lift. I shall take a picnic lunch if the weather is fine. Jackie Bullen – 01935 813112.
