'Why I believe: an invisible thread of faith and faithfulness over 50 years'

Canon Dr Alan Kerbey OBE

Fierce Imaginings - God and the Great War Mon 19th Nov - Canon Revd Dr Rachel Mann Few would deny the cataclysmic effect the First World War had on western society. Families, villages, even towns and professions were torn apart by loss of sons, brothers, friends and colleagues. What did this do to the way these communities viewed God? Some allege that it was not only men who died on the wire but also pre-war understandings of faith and religion. Rachel Mann explores what the Great War did to the faith and hopes of a generation and how that trauma has helped to shape our present world. Do come and join us! Digby Church Hall, Tickets £5.00

*Holy God, this world feels heavy with grief. We mourn for lives cut short by hatred, for families seeking refuge only to be met with hostility, for those told that they are unwanted by the nation that they call home.
We pray that your compassion and mercy would cover
our world and the veil of ignorance would be lifted, so that we may all see each other as you do - beloved, cherished, and so loved. Amen.*

“In a few weeks’ time I shall be away for 6 weeks, so we’re in desperate need of volunteers to man the doors on Tuesdays and Fridays for the rest of this year, so that visitors can deposit their much-needed gifts to be shipped out to refugees in a number of countries. PLEASE could you enter your names on the list in the hall. Thank you. Jackie Bullen.

On November 21st, I will be fundraising for my Mental Health Art Group by having a Coffee Morning and Bring and Buy stall at a supporters home. If you feel you could donate any small unwanted items to sell, that would be wonderful! Many Thanks, Lynn Heaton 01963 251747.
