

MESSAGE BOARD – continued

Fierce Imaginings - God and the Great War Mon 19th Nov - Canon Revd Dr Rachel Mann Few would deny the cataclysmic effect the First World War had on western society. Families, villages, even towns and professions were torn apart by loss of sons, brothers, friends and colleagues. What did this do to the way these communities viewed God? Some allege that it was not only men who died on the wire but also pre-war understandings of faith and religion. Rachel Mann explores what the Great War did to the faith and hopes of a generation and how that trauma has helped to shape our present world. Do come and join us! Digby Church Hall, Tickets £5.00

Therefore consider whether the light in you is not darkness. If then your whole body is full of light, with no part of it in darkness, it will be as full of light as when a lamp shines its light on you.
- Luke 11:35-36

Be a lamp, or a lifeboat, or a ladder. – Rumi

Almighty God, let our spirits rise with you. Let us be people of light; sharing your goodness, reflecting your greatness, and bestowing unconditional love and grace on all those whom we encounter this day. Amen.
