

Our exploration of doing truth ends with a visit from Canon Bill Cave. What is Truth?, Mon 26th Nov
Until his retirement a few months ago, Canon Bill Cave was lead chaplain at The Verne prison where he lead an inter-faith chaplaincy team of Christian, Moslem, Hindu, Sikh, Jewish and Buddhist colleagues (amongst others).
We have spent much of the last few months here @sherborneinside exploring what it means to "Do Truth" in society today and we have approached this from the basis of truth as a shared understanding amongst society at large. But what if my truth is not yours as a consequence of not just opinion or politics but even faith? Where does the truth lie in such an environment? Tickets £5.00 from the Parish Office or at the door – Digby Memorial Hall, 7.00 pm 26th November.

Oh God, let us declare our hurt, and in doing so accept the care of others. In a society that so prizes individualism, let us remember that you have called us to community and to live lives of radical compassion. Amen.

MESSAGE BOARD

Pre-Advent Quiet Day will be held on Tomorrow in the Griffiths Room at the Digby Memorial Church Hall at 10.00 am for 10.30 start. Finish at 3.30pm. This will be led by Revd Richard Wyld with the theme "Where the good way lies. Please bring a Bible, notebook and pen and packed lunch. Coffee, Tea and Soup provided. Book a place at the Parish Office on 01935 812452 (office hours only)

From the Church Secretary:

Minutes of the recent Church Meeting are now available on the right hand notice board in the Church Welcome Area and on the board on the far side of the Hall. Please return to the envelopes after you have read them. If you would like your own copy, either printed or electronic, please let me know. Copies of the Church Data Protection Policy and the model Data Protection Form (adapted for our use) are on the same boards.

Traidcraft - Some of you will know that Traidcraft has been experiencing falling sales, and in September we were told it might well stop trading at the end of this year. However, recently, we heard that it would be continuing, although downsizing, in 2019. There are further details about this on the notice board in the hall. Do please support Traidcraft now and into the future. There is a stall with Christmas cake, biscuits, chocolates and cards, as well as regular items, during the Christmas Tree Festival on Thursday morning 6th Dec. and Saturday 8th (time to be arranged)

New Arrival. Congratulations and best wishes to Daniel and Megan Hooper on the birth of a daughter Charlotte Louise, who weighed in at 9lbs 9 ozs. Congratulations also to Mollie and Mike Hooper on becoming Great grand parents.

Flower Rota

I would like to thank everyone who has donated and arranged flowers in church. There has been a tremendous response this year. What a difference a wonderful splash of colour makes in the church, giving pleasure to so many. More importantly they give so much joy when taken to members unable to be in church with us because of illness. Thank you all, especially Paul.

Bless you

Eirwen

PS. The new rota will be up soon.

Joan and I are going to sing in "performance in a day" on Saturday December 8th at St. Marks (see the Bridge). Don't know what to expect but we like singing. I have 3 spaces in the car if anyone wants to join in.
