One of the greatest motivations for forgiveness is knowing that it's you who will be the primary

From the Secretary

You may have heard that the Revd Canon Eric Woods is due to retire at Easter. Over the last few years Eric has helped to foster closer links between us and the Abbey, especially when we were without a Minister. He will be coming to lead worship at Cheap Street next Sunday, when we would like to make a presentation to him. Please give your contributions to Margaret Field this Sunday or to Christine next Thursday morning.

Prayers for the persecuted church: Libya - There is no freedom of speech, no equal treatment of Christians, no recognition of the church, and no churches are allowed to be built. While Christian migrant workers are allowed to meet and worship, they face discrimination and are at risk of attack by Islamic extremists. Lord, we pray for our brothers and sisters in Libya as they face intense persecution. We pray that You would break through in that nation, giving opportunities for believers to meet together and to share the good news of Jesus. Protect Your children from violence and change the hearts of militants intent on harming them. Amen.

Readings from The Man Born to be King by Dorothy L. Sayers. This is to be on Sunday afternoons from 3 – 4.30 p.m. on the following days. Sunday March 8th, March 22, March 29, April 19, April 26. The plays chosen will concentrate on the calling and response of the disciples.

Do stay a while after the service to enjoy refreshments and further fellowship in the church hall.
