

Cheap Street Church – News – 13 January 2022

Dear All

As you know, Penny Gardner is away this week, so we were not expecting a news sheet. However, important things do need to be passed on. This is a 'fill in' and there will be more in next week's news sheet.

Next Sunday, 16th January, we shall be welcoming the Rev'd Andrew de Ville to lead our our worship. Andrew is the Chair of our Southampton Methodist District.

Our thoughts go out to Sarah Poushkine, on the death of her husband, Mike. His funeral will be held at our church on Wednesday 26th January at 2.00 pm.

Then last Sunday Martin Heal died. Martin played such a big part in the life of the Church, and a proper tribute to him will follow later. We remember Pat and all the family at this time. There will be a family funeral on Friday 4th February at the crematorium and a thanksgiving service for Martin's life will follow at Cheap Street at 1.00 pm for all who would like to come.

We also heard last Saturday of the death of Dr Phyllis Batchellor, aged 99. Phyllis showed practical love for her neighbours, near and far, and was a faithful member of Cheap Street until she moved recently to live with her niece. Details of her funeral will follow.

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is from 18th to 25th January, so this will be the theme for Thought for the Day next Thursday. We hope that we shall be joined by some members from other Sherborne Churches on that occasion.

In all things, God goes with us.
