A POEM FROM MARGARET

Poem by John Betjeman as Poem a Week goes on Holiday for August.

Whether we like to sit with Penguin books
In sheltered alcoves farther up the cliff,
Or to eat winkles on the Esplanade,
Or to play golf along the crowded course,
Or on a twopenny borough council chair
To doze away the strains of
..Humoresque,
Adapted for the cornet and the drums
By the conductor of the Silver Band . . .

Please remember that there are always a few copies of the Good News newsletter in the POD for those who cannot receive emails.
